

Green Day with Bapu at Blossoms School

2020-01-13 20:08:34

Blossoms School observed the 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi & the 116th birth anniversary of Lal Bahadur Shastri in a unique way. It was observed as 'Green Day with Bapu' in collaboration with Sarvodaya International Trust, Odisha Chapter. The dignitaries were given warm welcome and presented with saplings as a token towards the pledge for preserving the nature. The melodious songs by the students and the special concert by the music instructor, Mrs. Harapriya Pati set the appropriate environment for the students to absorb the teachings of Gandhiji. The principal, Mrs. Seemita Panda and the Founder Director, Mrs. Nadia Moghbelpour also inspired the students to take up the right path while working for excellence. Few students also expressed their views. The play, 'Life of Bapu' by the senior students under the guidance of Mr. Asit Mallick (teacher) was truly inspiring. The 'Ahimsa Gallery' was also inaugurated on the occasion. 3-Day Observation of the 150th Birth Anniversary of Bapu Blossoms School concluded the 3-day observation of the 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi on the 2nd of October. The 3-day observation (30th Sept – 2nd Oct) had many events and activities for the students that inspired them to walk on the path shown by Bapu towards attaining brotherhood, peace and tranquility in the society. Drawing, painting and crafts making on the themes of social reforms, national peace and national issues were part of the students' activities in the event. Stories from Bapu's life were also retold in the assembly. Students also took the 'Green Pledge' against the use of plastics and for saving energy towards a clean and green planet. The active participation of the Pre-primary students in songs and plays was remarkable. The third day was observed as 'Green Day with Bapu' in collaboration with Sarvodaya International Trust, Odisha Chapter. The dignitaries were presented with saplings to mark the day. Besides the various talks, songs and speeches, the play, 'Life of Bapu' enacted by the senior students touched everyone's heart. The 'Ahimsa Gallery' was also inaugurated on the occasion.

Notice HeaderGreen Day with Bapu at Blossoms School Notice Content Blossoms School observed the 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi & the 116th birth anniversary of Lal Bahadur Shastri in a unique way. It was observed as 'Green Day with Bapu' in collaboration with Sarvodaya International Trust, Odisha Chapter. The dignitaries were given warm welcome and presented with saplings as a token towards the pledge for preserving the nature. The melodious songs by the students and the special concert by the music instructor, Mrs. Harapriya Pati set the appropriate environment for the students to absorb the teachings of Gandhiji. The principal, Mrs. Seemita Panda and the Founder Director, Mrs. Nadia Moghbelpour also inspired the students to take up the right path while working for excellence. Few students also expressed their views. The play, 'Life of Bapu' by the senior students under the guidance of Mr. Asit Mallick (teacher) was truly inspiring. The 'Ahimsa Gallery' was also inaugurated on the occasion. 3-Day Observation of the 150th Birth Anniversary of Bapu Blossoms School concluded the 3-day observation of the 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi on the 2nd of October. The 3-day observation (30th Sept – 2nd Oct) had many events and activities for the students that inspired them to walk on the path shown by Bapu towards attaining brotherhood, peace and tranquility in the society. Drawing, painting and crafts making on the themes of social reforms, national peace and national issues were part of the students' activities in the event. Stories from Bapu's life were also retold in the assembly. Students also took the 'Green Pledge' against the use of plastics and for saving energy towards a clean and green planet. The active participation of the Pre-primary students in songs and plays was remarkable. The third day was observed as 'Green Day with Bapu' in collaboration with Sarvodaya International Trust, Odisha Chapter. The dignitaries were presented with saplings to mark the day. Besides the various talks, songs and speeches, the play, 'Life of Bapu' enacted by the senior students touched everyone's heart. The 'Ahimsa Gallery' was also inaugurated on the occasion. Notice Date:2020-01-13 20:08:34