"Environment is precious to life, secure it for life. " We need to understand that the Earth and the environment do not belong to us, rather we belong to them. The earlier we understand and work towards conserving it, the better it is for us and for the life existing on Earth. Blossoms always encourages its students to be self-aware about protecting and conserving the environment and at the same time by spreading awareness among the masses by putting thoughts into actions. The blossomites recently participated in Delhi Prant Paryavaran Pratiyogita to acquire practical competency and attitude to confront the environmental challenges and their mitigation. They vowed to contribute towards a 'Green and Safe Planet'.
