Tribute to the unfathomable patience of the father "A father's tears and fears are unseen, his love is unexpressed, but his care and protection remains as a pillar of strength throughout our lives. " Blossomites in the Preprimary, Primary and Secondary wings took up to various unique ways to honour their fathers while celebrating the strong parental bond between them. The heart felt cards and the poems originating from feelings were just few ways to thank the endless patience and love of the fathers. Blossoms salutes the steady guidance, wisdom and cooperation showered by the fathers upon their children that mark the foundation of their lives. We, at Blossoms also pray to the Almighty to give enough strength to all the unfortunate beings who have lost this precious partnership with their fathers in the recent times, to bear this irreparable loss and look at the good times spent with them. for more details please visit
